This Addendum to Master Service Agreement (“Addendum”) is made as of the 31st day of July 2019, by and between U.S. TelePacific Corp., a California corporation, d/b/a, TPx Communications, 515 S. This Addendum amends and modifies that certain Master Service Agreement between TPx and Customer entered into on the 5th day of August 2019 (“Agreement”), as follows:

1. Based on the volume of Services ordered by Customer and the competitive conditions in the marketplace for telecommunications services, TPx hereby agrees to provide Services to Customer pursuant to Terms and Conditions and rates applicable to the Agreement as modified below based upon Customer’s commitment to a three (3) year term (“Initial Term”) subject to the Terms and Conditions as modified by this Addendum as set forth below.
2. 3. During the Initial Term, if Customer experiences a service interruption lasting four (4) hours or more (“Outage”) on three (3) or more occasions within any two (2) consecutive months, Customer may, within thirty (30) days after the most recent Outage, provide notice of termination of the affected Service and shall not incur a termination charge for terminating said Service prior to the completion of the Initial Term.
4. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in subsections (a), (b) and (d) of Section 1 of the Terms and Conditions of the Agreement, TPx shall not increase the monthly recurring charge for Services provided to Customer during the Initial Term.
5. If TPx misses an SLA metric for the same service in any consecutive three (3) month period, Customer may, within thirty (30) days after the third (3rd) consecutive monthly metric failure terminate, provide TPx with written notice of termination of said service without incurring a termination charge.
6. At any time during the Initial Term, Customer may add services, i.e., seats, at the same price provided to Customer on Customer’s initial Service Agreement.

7. All of the other provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
